

Dear Friend of the Chaplaincy,

Thanks-living. Do you try to have an attitude of praise and thanksgiving each day? In all honesty, there are times we fall short of the goal. What do you do when you find yourself down or complaining? Do you try to get back to the basics by simply remembering all the good things God has done for you and those you love? I have found that as I concentrate on God and His goodness, mercy and grace, not only does it put things into better perspective, it's contagious. Joy births joy. A thankful heart flows over in everything we say or do.

Your Chaplains live that life of thanksgiving by serving. They reach into another's life when it has been devastated. They continue to train to be the best support in the worse of situations. The opportunities are limitless this year. Bankruptcy, foreclosures, furloughs, layoffs are as much of a crisis as are the homicides, suicides, domestic violence, and fatal accidents. Yet, your Chaplains stand, shoulder to shoulder, around the clock waiting to respond to the cry, "Help me".

This Thanksgiving, we give thanks for you. We commit to praying daily for you. We are grateful that you know and have seen the value of the Law Enforcement Chaplaincy-Sacramento. We give thanks for your unselfish heart of giving. We are honored that you financially support the Chaplaincy.

We are very aware there are many worthwhile non-profits and missions competing for your charity dollar this Holiday Season. We are praying that you will remember the Law Enforcement Chaplaincy-Sacramento with your generosity. Please consider this being your year-end contribution request. Every dollar you send helps us help others.

We at the Law Enforcement Chaplaincy-Sacramento (L.E.C.-S) would like to wish you abundant blessings, this Thanksgiving. And pray that your holiday season will be filled with joy, peace and a 'Life of Thanksgiving.'

Sincerely,

Senior Chaplain Mindi Russell, Executive Director
